ACCIDENT INFORMATION SUMMARY

Continued:

Vehicle #1 operated by Sarah Clark was west on Route 44 in the town of Barkhamsted. Clark's son, Jaden Clark age 6 was a passenger seated directly behind his mother with a seat belt in place. Vehicle #2 operated by Randy Rosenbeck was traveling east on Route 44 in Barkhamsted. Along the stretch of Route 44 between Old North Rd. and East West Hill Rd vehicle #1 crossed over the median into the east bound lane striking the side of Vehicle #2. Vehicle #2 then continued off the right shoulder and completely rolled over before coming to rest on the operator side of the vehicle. Both operators had to be extricated from their vehicles. Witness at the scene assisted Jaden Clark from the rear window of the vehicle.

Oper #2, Randy Rosenbeck was pronounced deceased by Paramedics at the scene. Oper#1, Sarah Clark was flown to Hartford Hospital by Lifestar and listed in critical condition. Her son, Jaden Clark was also flown to Hartford Hospital by Lifestar and treated for minor injuries.

Both vehicles were heavily damaged. Vehicle #2 was a oil tank truck caring home heating oil. DEP responded to the scene along with crews from United Industrial Service to clean up the spill. Fire Departments from throughout the area responded along with ambulances from Winsted and New Hartford.

Route 44 was closed from 0800 hours until 1515 hours where at that time one lane was re-opened. Crews expect both lanes of Route 44 to be open in the next several hours.

This investigation is ongoing and is under the investigation of Tfc John Bement #1073, Barkhamsted Resident Trooper.
